CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

Janice Bispham

Thank you. Eight letters that are not used enough. I will not be guilty of not voicing those eight letters. So thank you to all the delegates who flew to Los Angeles and worked hard to help move NABO in a direction mutually beneficial for member organizations, NABO and Barbados. Also thank you to the Barbados Association of California (BACA) for hosting the Board of Directors' Meeting. The Members of BACA ensured that the delegates experienced a hospitality that was at an optimal level.

The plans, for Summer Conference 2011, are jelling. The rooms are blocked at the BWI Marriott, so call and make your reservations today. The Baltimore Organization produced a PowerPoint presentation, which can be viewed on the NABO website, and will undoubtedly help you make a positive decision to join us July 1 - 4, 2011 in Baltimore. As NABO Moves Forward Together In Unity, Our theme for the 2011 Summer Conference.

The NABO Executive Team is constantly in motion and has become very good at multi-tasking. Therefore we are not only finalizing plans for this year's Summer Conference, but we have activated the Election Committee for Board of Directors' Meeting 2012, which will be held in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. In addition, NABO will be supporting the Diaspora Conference in Barbados in 2012, so those plans are also in the works as we speak.

Shortly, each member organization will be receiving requests for nominations for awardees, and scholarship recipients. We also need the support of each organization to solicit ads for the souvenir journal. If each association sells at least three ads, plus place an ad for the organization, we will have a beautiful full size publication.

Finally, there are people whose worth cannot be fully expressed in mere words. Mr. David Bulbulia will be returning to Barbados in a few short weeks and I would like to take this opportunity to again use those eight letters - THANK YOU. Mr. Bulbulia has served the people of Barbados well and we in NABO have often benefitted from the sage advice that Mr. Bulbulia extended to us. At our January meeting, Mr. Bulbulia was made an honorary member of NABO and that was the members way of saying that we honor you as a son of Barbados; who has continually worked hard to display Barbados in the best light possible. Good luck David Bulbulia and you will be missed.

NABO has a new face!

Honorary NABO Member

Honorary Member of NABO Mr. David Bulbulia

Thank you!

Mr. David Bulbulia was made an Honorary Member of NABO at the January 2011 Board of Directors' Meeting. Mr. Bulbulia has been present at most of NABO's meetings and conferences, bringing the message from the Government of Barbados and offering many words of wisdom. Good luck in your new post in Barbados and welcome to Washington, DC to the person assuming the position.

A special thank you

from NABO's Chairperson Ms. Janice Bispham
